The latest estimates with respect to the corn crop in the seven Western States that supply most of the surplus, put the yield at from 34 to 60 per cent. as compared with that of last year. In round numbers, the total shrinkage aggregates about 650,000,000 bushels, or 25 per cent. The amount required for home consumption is 1,000,000,000 bushels, and the total crop this year is not likely to exceed 1,800,000,000. It will thus be seen that instead of an overproduction as in 1889, the prospect is for a considerable deficiency even in the supply for domestic uses.

THE New York Tribune warns publicists demagogues that "it must be forgotten that some of the great departments of industry and trade have been looking for a passage of the McKinley bill long and with so much reason at failure would involve serious loss and risk." The Tribune means this that a failure to pass this bill, which was promised in return for the fat frying in the last campaign, would involve serious loss to the fellows who furnished the money, and the risk to the party in failure in that fat frying.

dol of Indiana. It was his habit when engaged in a canvass to mark, in his speeches during the last week of the campaign, "I don't think Indiana will go back on me next Tuesday." When the grand orator hooked on over to a vast audience always gathered and spoke the above sentence with a half-questioning and pathetic inflection, every old farmer present jumped to his feet or from the ground and shouted "You hit the won't." It was like an electric shock. When Tuesday night came the telegraph instruments were always busily clicking the news all over the country that "a cadent."
